SOME COURT SKETCHES.

'Is 'Whiskers Frum Down High Point Way,

THE MEEKEST COON IN TOWN.

He Admonished Her With a Beer Bottle—The Man Who Could Tell His Wheat by Sample.

He had a wealth of auburn whiskers and hair in the midst of which a ruddy face, as innocent looking as a babe of six months, was set, looking not unlike the rising sun in its matutinal aureole. But the charge was carrying a pistol. Major Stedman was the attorney. The man admitted that he carried the gun. So did the major. But the major thought there were extenuatiug circumstances. The major rose and in that courteous tone of his, mild as a May morning, explained to His Honor how his client was the "mildest mannered man that ever" weighted down his hip pocket with a gun. That when he was sober he would not touch one with a ten foot pole, but unfortunately he would periodically jag. Then he had a morbid craving for a thirty-eight just for a plaything. He would not harm his worst enemy. His Whiskers looked it and the major blandly smiled. His client wore the stamp of the Sunday-school. His Honor eyed him a moment then said something about "bad whiskey and pistols", as though in apology, adding "five dollars and costs."

THE MISSING LINK.

He was a dusky, ashy coon with a physiognomy that would have set Darwin to shouting "Eureka, I've got the missing link." He had been carrying knucks. He explained how it was quite by accident. He had "done lent his cote an' de knucks wuz in it wen he got it back." He did not like to throw them away and so carried them, very unwillingly. His Honor said thirty days in improving the highways.

KNEW HIS OWN WHEAT.

There was a negro of large dimensions who was accused of a penchant for wheat bread. He had carried off a bushel. The evidence was ugly against him. The owner of that wheat said he would know it anywhere. He was sure of it. It was built on a different plan from plain, ordinary wheat. His Honor thought that six months would have a deterrent effect.

THE KNIGHT OF THE BOTTLE.

One Kirkman was arraigned for shooting at a women and then catching her by the hair and employing a beer bottle as an instrument of moral suasion. Colonel Staples introduced no testimony for his client, but he succeeded in convincing the jury that there was no danger in a beer bottle and that the assault was a very simple matter. They saw it in the same light and gave a verdict accordingly.

THE TIME OF DAY.

Another gentleman of color had the misfortune to be found possessed of a clock and suit of clothes belonging to another. He told the jury how he had bought 'em for two dollars from a man on a wheel. The man on the wheel turned out to be the deputy sheriff and the foreman smiled and said guilty.

The Minstrel Show.

Considerable interest has been aroused among the amusement patrons of this city in the appearance tomorrow night of the much heralded Fields and Hanson's Minstrels. This will be the first visit here of this splendid organization, though it is safe to say they will be greeted by a packed house for almost everyone has at sometime or another, either seen or heard of Fields & Hanson's great musical comedy act, which has been the leading feature of the principal organizations the past decade. This, however, is not the only redeeming point of the performance, as they have wisely surrounded themselves with nearly thirty-five of America's leading artists, and a programme of high class, refreshing minstrelsy may be expected.

RYAN SENTENCED

To Be Hanged on Thursday December Twenty-Third.

The tragedy enacted in this city last Saturday night in which Mrs. Eliza A. Ryan was so brutally and foully murdered by her husband Robert S. Ryan culminated in the death sentence being passed upon the murderer by Judge Adams this afternoon at 2:40.

Ryan was ushered into the court room at the opening of the afternoon session, followed by an immense throng which literally packed the house. The prisoner was seated between Deputy Davis and Policeman Pearce. He was remarkably calm and hardly a tremor was visible during the delivery of the death sentence.

At the command of the judge the doomed man rose steadily to his feet without the twitching of a muscle. Once or twice his lips were seen to move while the words which sealed his doom fell from the lips of the judge.

Before sentence was pronounced Judge Adams impressed upon him the awfulness of the crime committed, and asked him if he then had any reason to give why the death sentence should not be passed upon him, to which he replied in a steady voice:

"I have none."

The judge proceeded in a feeling manner and told the prisoner that it was not a pleasant duty for him to perform, but there was no alternative. "I am frank to say" said the judge "that you need not hope for executive clemency. You have committed the greatest crime known to our law, that of taking the life of a human being and you must soon, very soon meet a just God. While it seems that you are indifferent, I hope that deep down in your heart you are sorry for the deed and that you will repent. God is able, willing and anxious to save your soul.

"You have taken the life of one whom you were to protect. I hope you will ask and receive pardon for this crime, notwithstanding the vile sinner you are. You should remember God's blessed promises."

After this earnest exhortation Judge Adams formally pronounced the death sentence, fixing the date December 23, 1897, at the place of execution to be provided by the county commissioners.

On that date Robert S. or "Sonly" Ryan will pay the penalty for shedding his wife's blood, between the hours of 8 a. m. and 4 p. m., by being hanged by the neck until he is dead, dead, dead!

He was carried back to jail and a strong guard will be kept over him until the time for his execution.

Eminent Commander.

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.

Lengthy and Covers Multitude of Subjects.

HAWAII IS TO BE ANNEXED.

The Currency to Be Reformed-Spain Must Have More Time--New Battleships for Pacific.

Washington, Dec. 6—Today at noon, simultaneously, both houses of congress were called to order. The opening ceremonies were of the usual routine character. The galleries were crowded with spectators. The following is a synopsis of the President's message:

It gives me pleasure to greet the Fifty-fifth congress in regular session, many of whose senators and representatives I have been associated with in legislative session. The meeting occurs under felicitious circumstances, justifying sincere congratulations and calling for grateful acknowledgement to a beneficient Providence, which has signally prospered us as a nation. Praise God that peace with all nations continues unbroken. The public questions which most engross us are lifted above partisanship. The questions of foreign policy, revenue, the soundness and inviolability of our national currency obligation, and the improvement of public service appeal earnestly to individual consciences.

THE CURRENCY QUESEION.

The tariff question having been settled at the extra session of congress, the currency question is the next most pressing. We should not hesitate to enter upon a revision which will make demand obligations less onerous and relieve the financial laws from ambiguity and doubt. The evils of the present system are found to be a great cost to the government in maintaining the parity of different forms of money. We cannot be heedless of this burden, which is expensive and a dangerous menace to the national credit. We have nine hundred millions of dollars which the government, by solemn enactment, has undertaken to keep at par with gold while the government is without any fixed gold revenue. There has been no deficit requiring the issuance of bonds, but if the gold reserve falls below a hundred million dollars how will it be replenished except by selling bonds? I earnestly recommended that when the receipts of the government are sufficient to pay expenses the United States notes presented for redemption be set apart and be only paid out in exchange for gold. If they are put out in any other way they may return again to be followed by another bond issue to redeem them, another interest-bearing debt to redeem a non-interest bearing debt. I concur with the secretary of the treasury that the circulating notes of national banks secured by bonds be reduced to one-half of one per cent per year. I also join him in recommending that authority be given for the establishment of national banks with a medium capital of twenty-five thousand dollars, which will enable smaller villages, in agricultural regions, to be supplied with currency needs.

SPAIN AND CUBA.

The most important problem the government is called upon to deal with pertaining to our foreign relations, concerns our duty towards Spain and the Cuban insurrection. The story of Cuba has been one of unresting effort towards the larger enjoyment of liberty and self control, of organized resistance to the method of the mother country, of ineffectual settlement followed by revolt. Instructions given our new Minister to Spain before his departure were to impress upon Spain the sincere wish of the United States to lend its aid toward ending the war in Cuba by reaching a peaceful and lasting result, just and honorable alike to Spain and Cuba. It was stated that at this juncture our government was constraned seriously to interference if the time was not ripe when Spain of her own volition and moved by her own interests and every sentiment of humanity, should not put a stop to the destructive war, and make a proposition of settlement honorable to herself and to Cuba. It was charged that as a neighboring nation, with large interests in Cuba, we could only be required to wait a reasonable time for the mother country to establish its authority and secure peace; that we could not contemplate an indefinite period for the accomplishment of this result.

The President then referred to the reforms instituted by the Sagasta government and argued that Spain should be given a reasonable chance to realize our expectations and to prove the assured effect of the new order of things to which she stands irrevocably committed. He refers to removal of Weyler, "the brutal commander who inflamed Americans and shocked the civilized world." The President gives assurance that the rights of Americans will be protected and that the government will abate none of its efforts to bring about by peaceful agencies an end of the Cuban war.

HAWAII ANNEXATION.

Briefly, the President advocates the annexation of Hawaii and enjoins that self rule be accorded Hawaiian subjects.

BIMETALLIST ENVOYS.

The bimetallist envoys appointed to represent the United States have been diligent in their efforts to secure the concurrence and co-operation of European countries for international settlement of the question, but have not been able to secure the agreement contemplated by their mission. They have not reported finally, as negotiations with foreign countries are still pending. They believe that doubts raised in certain quarters as to the parity between the metals and kindred questions may yet be solved by further negotiations.

INTERNATIONAL ARBITRATION.

International arbitration cannot be omitted from subjects claiming our consideration. The best sentiment of the civilized world is moving in this direction. I concur with the Secretary of the Navy for appropriation authorizing construction of more battleships on the Pacific coast; also that several torpedo boats be authorized.

NATIONAL QUARANTINE.

The recent visitation of yellow fever in many cities and towns throughout the South has resulted in much disturbance of commerce and demonstrated the necessity of such amendment to the quarantine laws as will make the regulations of the national quarantine authorities paramount. I recommend that Congress authorize the appointment of a commission of expert bacteriologists, one from the Marine hospital, one from civil life and one to be a medical officer from the Navy.

ALASKA.

Alaska demands prompt and early attention. A more thorough government should be established there.

PACIFIC RAILWAY.

The Government should not allow the Kansas Pacific railway to be sold at a price which will yield less than one half the principal of its debts.

GOVERNMENT EXPENSES.

While Congress may not find it an easy task to reduce the expenses of the government it should not encourage their increase. These expenses will, in my judgment, admit of decrease in many branches without injury to the public service. Its commanding duty is to keep the expenses within the receipts of the government and avoid a deficit.

After the message was read both houses of Congress adjourned until tomorrow.

Remember the call for a meeting of those interested in a Public Library at 8 p. m. at the court house.

MOTHER M'KINLEY NO BETTER.

Physicians Say She is Getting Weaker Every Moment.

Canton, Ohio, Dec. 7—The condition of Mother McKinley this morning is unimproved. There has been no perceptible rally from last collapse, which has now continued longer than any of the earliest ones.

The physicians say she is growing weaker every moment and they scarcely have hope that she will last the day out.

SCOOPED BY MINISTER WHITE

Emperor of Germany Outwits Washington Authorities

CRISIS AT PORT AU PRINCE

No News from Minister Powell and the State Department is Incredulous—No Help for Hayti.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM

Washington, Dec. 7—The state department asserted at noon today that it had not heard from Minister Powell as to the crisis at Port-au-Prince.

The officials say they do not believe the matter is as serious as it is reported. They base this belief on the fact that Powell has not been heard from. There is every evidence going to show that the department has been outwitted by Germany, and the Emperor has cleverly "scooped" Minister White as to his plans.

The United States cruiser Marblehead is expected to arrive at Hayti tomorrow. The gunboat Wilmington may be ordered there at any moment.

Assistant Secretary of State Cridler said today: "Hayti must fight her own battles. Germany has changed her demands to the payment of $20,000. Nothing has been received from there today."

Secretary Sherman says the Haytian government is entirely wrong.

RYAN INTERVIEWED.

Declares He is Ready to Die and the Sooner the Better.

Early this morning Ryan sent word to this office that he wished to see a Telegram reporter. One accompanied his messenger to the jail and was admitted.

"Good morning, Ryan, how do you feel?" said the reporter.

Without a moment's hesitation, he replied, "I feel better. The nearer the time comes for me to leave the better I am pleased."

Ryan, who has been wonderfully cool and indifferent all the while, was manifestly laboring under suppressed feeling of some sort; whether fear or remorse it was impossible to determine. His voice was unsteady and he kept his eyes on the floor of his cell while he nervously shifted his feet.

"Have you anything you wish to say?" he was asked.

He hesitated a moment and then replied: "Nothing I might say would be believed, so there is no use of my saying anything." After a moment's silence he said: "I wish to leave as quickly as possible and get with her. I would have gone with her at the time if the pistol had fired. I snapped on the cartridges twice and they would not fire, so I went to the hardware store to get more. I want to leave somehow, it makes no difference how."

"Did you not try to take laudanum when you were captured?"

"Yes, there is no need of my lying, I did. I denied it at the time but it is no use now."

"Have you decided to give your motive for the crime?"

"No, she is gone now. I gave my reason in the letter but it was suppressed."

"Why did you refuse counsel yesterday?"

"Because I wished to die. If I could take counsel and come clear I would not have them."

"Do you mean to say you wish to be hanged?"

"Yes, the more quickly I am executed the better I will be pleased."

"Do you not care, though, what people will think and say about you after you are gone?"

"No, I do not care for myself though I do for my children. No man ever loved his wife and children better than I."

"Why did you kill her, then?"

"Because after the boy swore I made him steal those things my life was ruined. I left an affidavit to prove I was away at the time, but it was suppressed."

"Did you do the deed in a fit of jealousy?"

"No, I was not jealous.

Facts Worth Studying.

If the Southern Stock-Mutual pays no larger dividends than the 20 per cent. now paid, and the business increases during the next seven years in the same ratio it has increased during the last three years, the actual saving for the ten years to policy-holders in North and South Carolina will be $194,822.00, and to the policy-holders in Greensboro alone, $26,237.00. Besides this the Company's assets (reinsurance reserve and surplus) represented by still larger figures will be kept at home and invested in the state. What better investment can the public make than by upholding an institution like this?

THE PRESIDENTS MESSAGE.

The President's message outlines for Congress much the same course that the policy of the administration had already indicated. On the Cuban question, the annexation of Hawaii and retiring the greenbacks it is pretty much what was expected. It advocates the same delay in recognizing the belligerency of the Cubans that the administration has practised all along. It shows that the administration and Thomas B. Reed are at least in accord in that particular.

The President also feels assured that the Senate will annex Hawaii. Just why the Senate should do so we are not told. Probably because it will appeal to the national pride of the ignorant and thoughtless and so make the election of a republican Congress next year less difficult.

When the message comes to deal with the currency commission it is even more diplomatic than it had been in other particulars. The President glides over that unpleasant topic with a facility and grace that would have made his fortune as a foreign minister. It has fallen flat with a thud that would have taken the wind out of most promoters but we are blandly assured that there is still a large stock of negotiation left and whence the present sample came. The problem has not been solved to any encouraging degree as yet but with a profound faith in negotiating we are asked to look confidingly forward to the day when other nations may give a sign that at length they are aware of the existence of a monetary commission.

The President's plan to keep the notes in the treasury paying them out only for gold is not likely to come to anything. There is a very strong sentiment throughout the country against further contraction of the currency. Congressmen will be likely to shy at that recommendation.

Neither will the part that advises the reduction of tax on national bank issues and the increase of legal issues of notes to the full amount of bonds held warm the Congressman to great enthusiasm. That too is touching on a branch of the present currency system that is very unpopular throughout the south and west. It will excite opposition not only from the President's political opponents but unless Mr. Reed shall have his henchmen under unusually good control will be antagonized by republicans as well.

Taken as a whole the message is not a very remarkable production. It is quiet, dignified and mediocre—just what would have been expected from Mr. McKinley who is an eminently respectable and an eminently commonplace chief executive. It is even devoid of the ponderous phrases that used to excite the admiration of the ignorant and the mirth of the intelligent man in Mr. Cleveland's messages.

PERTINENT.

When Judge Adams said "Every good man is willing for the law to take its course," he uttered a rebuke that is none the less cutting because uttered in a kindly spirit. It contains a truth that cannot be too much emphasized.

We have heard expressions from men in the past two days that were surprising, to put it mildly. They have come from men of prominence, of apparent good judgment and of serious minds. Yet they were directly provocative of crime in their tendency.

We have heard men advocate lynching who certainly should have known better. They were talking idly, possibly, but idle remarks of that sort breed lawlessness.

It should not be forgotten that to advocate lynching is quite as disreputable as to advocate theft or forgery. It is just as much a crime. He who encourages it does as much to lower the moral tone of the community.

There seems to be a sort of idea prevalent that there is something courageous in lyching. As a matter of fact it is the most contemptibly cowardly crime in the whole catagory. There is in it nothing that would not disgust a man of courage if he would but pause a moment to consider it coolly. As a rule the man who will lynch would take to his heels if called on to face singly an armed antagonist. The exception is the few men who usually lead the mob.

The officers who had Ryan in charge acted rightly in taking steps to secure him from violence. Any step that may have been necessary to uphold the dignity of the law would have been justifiable. About that there is no room for two opinions.

These things are said not because there is any danger of violence or has really been any but because the view of lynching held by the majority is very much distorted.

The report that the chignon is to be revived suggests that the ladies who adopt that tasteful elevation might secure a very striking effect by simultaneously going in for a Kaffir ring in the nose.

The airship has been seen near Duluth, which being interpreted means that the "firewater" of that immortal metropolis is of an unusually aggressive nature.

Mr. McKinley's recommendation that governmental expenses be reduced, have much more the ring of financial soundness than his currency vagaries.

The Dreyfus affair is causing a number of Parisian duels and the air is being perforated with bullets and epithets.

HARRIS' LITHIA WATER
OF SOUTH CAROLINA.

Contains More Lithia than any Natural Lithia Springs Water on the market. There are a great many so-called Lithia Waters on the market whose analysis show that they contain only traces of lithia. It seems that if you wish a Lithia Water you should examine the analysis of the waters and find out how much they contain. The analysis of Harris Lithia Water was made by the noted R. Ogden Dosemus, M. D., LL. D., Professor of Chemistry and Physics, College City, of New York. If the Harris Lithia Water is not Superior to any other water on the market, do you think that the following noted physicians from all parts of the country would give their testimonial, stating that it was? They have no interest in the Harris Lithia Water.

After a long and varied experience in the use of mineral waters from many sources, both foreign and domestic, I am fully persuaded that the Harris Lithia Water possesses efficacy in the treatment of afflictions of the Kidney and Bladder unequalled by any other water of which I have made trial.
This opinion is based upon observation of its effects upon my patients for the past three years, during which time I have prescribed it freely and almost uniformly with benefit in the medical maladies above mentioned.
Columbia, S. C., Oct. 8, 1892. A. N. TALLEY, M. D.

Mr. J. T. Harris:—Dear Sir: I have found the use of the water from your Lithia Spring in South Carolina so efficacious in the case of a young lady patient of mine, who has suffered for years with Diabetes, with all its different attendants, that I want to add my testimonial to the many you already have. The patient I refer to has used the water freely at home for scarcely a month now, with more beneficial results than from months spent at the different noted lithia springs in different parts of the United States, besides long continued use of the same waters at home. Others of my patients and friends are now using the same with best results. I cordially recommend it to all suffering from similar diseases. Very respectfully yours,
THOMAS S. POWELL, M. D., Pres. Southern Medical College, Atlanta, Ga.

Read what Prof. Jos. Jones, of Tulane University, of New Orleans, has to say in regard to the virtues of Harris Lithia Water:
New Orleans, La., Aug. 13, 1894.
Harris Lithia Water Co., Harris Springs, S. C.:
Gentlemen—I have used, with great benefit, the case of water sent me, and regard it with favor, being highly charged with Lithia.
Respectfully, JOS. JONES, M. D.

June 12, 1893. Mr. J. T. Harris, Harris Springs, S. C.:
Dear Sir—I have used the Harris Lithia Spring Water for the past year in all renal troubles, with prompt and efficient effect. In gouty and rheumatic troubles I consider this water superior to the Buffalo Lithia Spring water. I suffered from an attack of rheumatism for eight months, during which time I drank the Buffalo Lithia water constantly for four months without effect. In November last I had a case of Harris Lithia Water sent to me, and after drinking it for about three or four weeks, the pain and stiffness left my limbs and I have not been troubled since. I feel that I can safely recommend the Harris Lithia Water. Respectfully,
Savannah, Ga. R. B. HARRIS, M. D.

"The Harris Lithia Water is, in my opinion, unexcelled for those ailments requiring the salts it contains. THEO. LAMB, M. D.
Professor Diseases of Chest and Principles of Medicine, Medical Department, University of Georgia.

Asheville, N. C. April, 24, 1893.
An extended clinical use of the Harris Lithia Water prompts me to the statement that I regard it as one of the best, if not the best Lithia Water known to the profession. In the condition of Phosphatic Urine, its action is marvelous. Its use in the Rheumatic and Gouty Diseases afford me more comfort than either the Buffalo or Londonderry Waters. Very truly yours,
JOHN HEY WILLIAMS, M. D.

Atlanta, Ga., April 20, 1897.
I have used for sometime Harris Lithia Water in my family, and also with my patients, and find it is the best Water I ever used in catarrhal condition of the uretus and bladder. It is also a good diuretic Water.
G. G. ROY, M. D.

Charleston, S. C., Sept. 20th 1893.
Mr. J. T. Harris:—Dear Sir: I am constrained to send you this testimonial of the efficacy of the Harris Lithia Water. The value of the testimonial may be enhanced from the fact that it goes to you unsolicited. As a friend of humanity, I feel bound to withhold my knowledge of its virtues no longer. I have been using the water for more than a year with marked benefit. To any one troubled with kidney disorder, it is the remedy par excellence. I prefer it to the Buffalo Lithia Water. Very truly yours,
A. C. KAUFMAN,
President Vanderbilt Benevolence Association of Charleston, S. C.

Mr. J. T. Harris, Proprietor Harris Lithia Springs:
Dear Sir—While it is contrary to my custom to give testimonials to remedial agents, I feel free to attest to the efficacy of the Harris Lithia Water (when used in large quantities) in the Rheumatic and Gouty Diatheses; in Inflammation of the Bladder, and in all cases where there is an excess of solids in the urine. Yours respectfully,
Columbia, S. C. GEO. HOWE, M. D.

The waters of the Lithia Springs are odorless, free from color, with a pleasant saline taste, rather palatable. When taken in considerable quantity, they do not nauseate, purge or produce any feeling of discomfort. I find from the analysis of the waters, they contain Chloride Sodium, Carb. Potash, Carb. Soda, Carb. Lithia, Carb. Iron and Sulphate Magnesia. These waters act directly upon the mucous coating of the stomach and alimentary canal, they are powerfully alterative and tonic. They are everything to inflamed or irritated surfaces. They act upon the blood, changing it from acid to alkaline. In Indigestion, Catarrh of Stomach and Gastralgia, supplemented with a proper diet they are a certain cure. The action upon the kindneys is marked. The Sodium, Potash, Soda, Lithia, are the best solvents of uric acid, all calculi of an acid character, whether litary or cystic, are steadily dissolved. I am confident that the profession will find it very useful in cases where this class of water is required.
Respectfully,
Waterboro, S. C., April 10, 1892. J. Q. WILBUR, M. D.

Camden, S. C., Aug 24, 1893.
Mr. J. T. Harris:—Dear Sir: I enclose you in this letter several small pieces of calculi passed by a patient of mine, who has been taking the "Harris Springs Water" for the past eighteen months. This gentleman has been a sufferer for two or three years with Cystitis, caused from stone. The solvent power of the water has been, I think, clearly demonstrated in this case. All these fragments were passed in two evacuations from his bladder in the past ten days. I consider Harris Spring Water a most excellent remedy in the Uric Acid Diathesis, also in Chronic Dyspeptic troubles.
I am, yours respectfully, A. W. BURNET. M. D.

Chester S. C.
Dear Sir: For the past eight months I have been using Harris Lithia Water with the most excellent results, where I have been able to get my patients to drink a sufficient quantity daily. The carbonated has no equal in Gastric disturbances. It is an excellent table water. It is a pleasant laxative, and is a sure cure for flatulent dyspepsia. S. M. DAVEGA, M. D.

Atlanta, Ga., April 24, 1897.
Mr. J. T. Harris, Harris Springs, South Carolina:
Dear Sir: I have found Harris Lithia Water an exceedingly valuable remedy for persons suffering from Kidney and Bladder Troubles. Therefore take pleasure in recommending it. Respectfully,
JAS. F. ALEXANDER, President Board Health.

Baltimore, June 24, 1896.
J. T. Harris, Esq., Harris Spring, South Carolina:
Dear Sir: I have been using Harris Lithia Water for sometime, and I will say to you that in my opinion that the Harris Lithia Water that is by far the best Lithia Water that I have ever used, and that it has done me a great deal good, and I think it a most valuable remedy.
R. C. HOFFMAN, Pres. S. A. L. R. R.

Atlanta, Ga, April 20. 1897.
Harris Lithia Water Co.,
Gentlemen:—I have used Harris Lithia Water for the past two years and find it a most excellent remedy for dyspepsia and other stomach troubles. I cheerfully recommend it CHAS. M. NEEL, Pres. Ga. Military Institute.

A Fair Proposition.

We will guarantee that one glass of HARRIS' LITHIA CARBONATED WATER will relieve any case of indigestion in one minutes' time or money refunded, or if taken after each meal will cure the worst case of indigestion. You see what the noted Dr. Davega, of Chester, S. C., has to say in regard to it, and there is not a physician in South Carolina who stands higher in the profession than he does, and besides you lose nothing by giving it a trial, as our agents are authorized to refund the money to any responsible person who will not admit that he was benefited by it.

Land Sale

By virtue of a mortgage deed executed by John Bethel and wife Fannie Bethel, on the 28th day of October, 1896, to J. W. Kerr, (since dead) and in consequence of a failure to pay the debt secured in said mortgage, I will sell to the highest bidder, for cash, at the court house door in Greensboro, N. C., on Saturday, December 4th, 1897, the lands described in said mortgage, butted and bouuded as follows:
Beginning on northeast corner of street on Main street leading to Greensboro, thence north 60 degrees east along westerly side of said street 10 1-3 poles, thence north 87 degrees west 14 1-2 poles, thence south 30 degrees west 10 1-6 poles to north side of said street, thence 87 degrees east with said street 14 poles to the beginning, containing one acre, more or less. There is reserved from this sale the lot out of this boundary heretofore sold to Frank Fields.
The above mortgage is recorded in book 102, page 707, in the office of the register of deeds, Nov. 4, 1897.
LAURA KERR, Executrix of J. W. Kerr, deceased.

IN MEMORIAM.

Flavius B. Smith, who was killed in a wreck on November 30th, on the A. and D. railroad, near Gill's Station, about 85 miles from Danville, Va., and whose remains arrived in this city on Thursday evening and was interred in Greenwood cemetery on Friday at 10 a. m., the 3d instant, was the second son of Bingham N. and G. E. Smith, of Greensboro. He was born May 1st, 1868, and was 29 years and 7 months old at the time of his death.

While quite young he was employed by one of the leading dry good firms in Charlotte. He was of a genial disposition and beloved by all who knew him, especially the manager, Mr. E. M. Young, who went into business at McAdensville and took young Smith with him where he remained until the year 1885 when his father left Charlotte and located on his farm in Guilford county, taking his son with him where he spent his time going to school and farming.

In 1889 or 1890 Flavius returned to Charlotte and was employed by the Charlotte Oil and Fertilizer company for a time. Being desirous of becoming an engineer he went to Danville and secured a position as fireman on the A. and D. railroad, and was soon promoted to engineer and when the road went into the hands of a receiver orders were issued that no engineer under 30 years of age should be employed on the road. This order cut young Smith off, and he went back to firing. It is said that by close application and study he knew the name and purpose of every part about an engine and at the time of his death was an instructor in the air brake system. He was endowed with inventive mind, which he was applying very closely to improvement on air brakes and engines, both of which were nearly completed and ready for trial.

The deceased leaves a father, mother, three brothers, five sisters, and a young wife to mourn their sad bereavement.

Mr. Smith was married to Miss Annie Adams last January. S.

Hurry Orders to Admiral Sicard.

Washington, Dec. 7.—A letter written by Secretary Long to Admiral Sicard, the commanding officer of the North Atlantic Squadron, directs him to have the repairs on all his ships expedited so that the vessels can start on their winter cruise in a week or ten days. There is no significance in the directions to hurry up work on the ships, beyond the desire of the department to have the winter maœuvres begin. The cruise has been extended to include Key West, which will be the base of exercise in the vicinity of the Tortugas, the southernmost point of the winter voyage. Stops will be made at Charleston, S. C., and Brunswick, Ga.

A Successful Operation.

Dr. Richardson is improving rapidly we are informed. He went to Richmond some days ago and yesterday had an operation performed for appendecitis. The operation was highly successful and the patient is on the rapid road to recovery.

This is to Certify that a few years since, while living in a malarial district, I suffered dreadfully with chills, which it seemed impossible to break. A friend urged me to try Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy. I did so, and by the use of a few bottles they were entirely broken broken, and I have not been troubled with them since. I also found it an excellent nervine.

AT ST. MATTHEWS CHURCH.

A Meeting of Epworth League Held There Last Night.

Greensboro, N. C. Dec. 7th, '97.
Editor Evening Telegram:

Last evening between the hours of 8 and 10 o'clock, I listened attentively to the rendition of a fine program by the Epworth League, of St. Matthews M. E. church of this city. The program consisted of sacred and descriptive solos, modern recitations, addresses, etc. Dr. J. Lot Bullock gave a physiological lecture in words and tone that with the natural philosophy it captured the ordinance. G. Washington McAdoo A. M., gave such an instructive lecture on the subject of "The Duties of Leaguers", that after which the ordinance stood upon their feet as an act of appreciation for what the above gentlemen had said. Prof. W. S. Thomas, president of the League, gave a short talk, subject: "Leaguers must read newspapers" and among other things he said, my good people, it is an act of domestic negligence and inattention for you to not take daily papers of your city and I respectfully introduce to you not as an agent of a paper, but only a reader of it, and that paper is The Greensboro Evening Telegram. This paper should be read in all christian homes; it is a clean, neat and newsy paper.

After this Rev. M. M. Jones dismissed the league with a sincere benediction.

Yours, G.

Notice.

The orchestra will practice on Thursday and Saturday nights until we hold our carnival. Full attendance desired.

Our Prescription Business
Is Growing Very Fast.
WHY?
Because we use only the Purest Drugs and Chemicals in filling them, and employ Experienced Pharmacist only behind our counter—two requisites necessary to insure accuracy and guard against any possibility of mistakes. Physicians and the public generally are finding this out, hence the large increase in our prescription file. Remember the place.

Shoe Selection
Is Easy Here,

The style you want, the durability you want and the price you can afford to pay are all considered and provided before you come. Its wonderful how good a shoe a very little money will buy now. That's because inventive genius and enterprise have made shoe making an exact science. The making of a pair of shoes today is about as simple a matter as when the first shoemaker wore his sandals of papyrus on the banks of the Nile. Modern methods make possible the wonderful shoe bargains we have prepared for you.

Our $1.75 and $2.00 lines of Ladies' Shoes are now complete. We can fit any foot in this line and guarantee satisfaction to our customers.
